

September 2021 NEWSLETTER

Hawthorne has gone through another successful summer season. Thank you to all the pool staff for their leadership and follow through to make our pool a fun place for our Members. 2021 season was much smoother than the 2020 season and look forward to a great 2022. See you then!

The Hawthorne Board and friends have been pursuing food menu and service for our Clubhouse. This is expected to be in place within the coming months. Numerous opportunities with several Members dedicating their time to find the best option for Hawthorne Country Club. We will inform you as things progress into its final stages.

Fred Ashby is taking his next step of retirement and moving to North Carolina. He will be resigning his long time Membership and his Board seat at the end of the month. Fred has been a steady leader of the Club and golf participation, organization, and information. He has done most of the setup and the programming needed to run our tournaments. He also has been Hawthorne's main IT guy and guided us through our website, etc.. Fred has kept us all informed on the web site an through the emails. I have missed many things that Fred has done for Hawthorne. THANK YOU FRED AND GOOD LUCK WITH YOUR FUTURE.

Board Seats are available and we have an election coming up the 2nd week of November. Any Equity Member that wants to dedicate their time is welcome to run. We will be announcing Nominating Committee shortly. Now feel free to share your interest with any Board Member or the Hawthorne Office. Email addresses for all Board Members are listed below.

The October Newsletter will contain more info and will be on time. IF you have topics you would like covered please let me know.

Please take note of the Sponsors below and support them.

Thank you for your time.
